Inclement Weather Remote Learning Plan

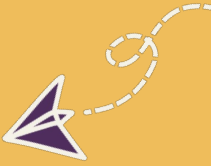

WCS Remote Learning Plan

North Carolina law allows public school districts to use Remote Instruction when schools are unable to open due to inclement weather. Warren County Schools can use up to five Inclement Weather Remote Instruction Days in lieu of in-person instruction. We believe the benefits of this approach will:

- ✓ Support continuity of instruction and learning for students
- ✓ Reduce the number of “make-up” days
- ✓ Increase the likelihood of maintaining Spring Break and ending the year as planned

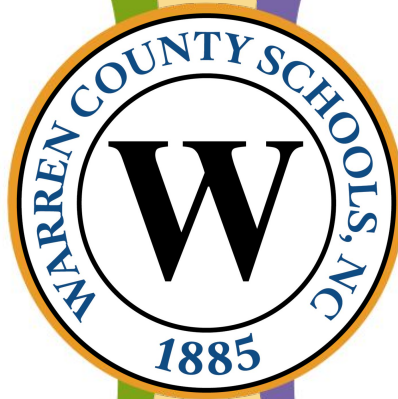

The Superintendent and District Operations team will make a decision for each inclement weather occurrence on a case by case basis to determine if a remote instruction day is appropriate.
